

I want to learn even more about programming and how to develop the software.. My contribution this week has been developing graphics to the game and planning our work. Also helped the deliveries like the team reflection. Next week I want to contribute more to the development of the code. I think we have improved our work with roles and more effective work.